Tuesday, November 10, 2026.

Chief Justice Finds No Prima Facie Case in Petition Brought Against Justice Gabriel Pwamang

Following the conclusion of the Chief Justice's preliminary inquiry into the petition submitted by Mr. Edward Adeti against Justice Gabriel Scott Pwamang, the Chief Justice has determined that no prima facie case has been established to warrant further investigation, in accordance with Article 146(3) of the Constitution.

Consequently, the constitutional threshold for initiating further proceedings has not been met, and no further action is required in respect of the petition. The matter is accordingly considered closed.

The Office of the President wishes to assure the public that the matter has been handled in accordance with the applicable constitutional procedures and the principles of due process.

Felix Kwakye Ofosu, MP.
Spokesperson to the President,
Minister, Government Communications.